

FEDERAL/STATE PARTNERSHIP
wishes you creative & visionary holidays —and an exciting & imaginative humanities-filled new year.

Eddie, Kathleen, Meg & Shirley

If dancers danced on their fingertips
Then piano players should play with their toes

The creative process is neither restrictive nor judgmental
It is the search for something
New and different and wonderful

Or maybe the need to make the old Good again

—from “Don Pullen” by Nikki Giovanni, published in Chasing Utopia (2013)
