

FEDERAL/STATE PARTNERSHIP www.neh.gov/divisions/fedstate

The section of the NEH website designed especially for State Humanities Councils, those who work with Councils, and those who value public humanities tailored to where they live.

What's there?

- About FedState
- Federal/State Staff
- Featured Projects
- Grant News
- In the Field
- E-newsletter Archive
- Resource Library

and ... a sign-up to receive Federal/State Partnership's monthly "Working Together" e-newsletter

About FedState describes the overall work of our office and includes links to the legislation that founded the state humanities councils.

Federal/State Staff has contact information for the five members of our staff. Edie Manza's bio is in this section. The bios of the other staff members can be found in the Resource Library.

Featured Projects has extended stories with photographs of stellar projects carried out by state humanities councils. These projects appear on the first page of the Federal/State Partnership section of the NEH website. A new story appears frequently. Featured projects often also appear in FedState's monthly e-newsletter.

Grant News covers the details of the ways state humanities councils interact officially with Federal/State Partnership. These include managing general operating support grants, annual compliance plans, the general liability insurance provided to councils by Federal/State Partnership, and the five-year assessment and review process.

In the Field highlights news from state humanities councils.

e-Newsletter Archive provides a complete archive of all newsletters published by FedState.

Resource Library has articles and links about council activities, council information, and materials about nonprofit management and grantmaking.

Other available information on the NEH website

- Contact information for the 56 state and jurisdictional humanities councils can be found at www.neh.gov/about/state-humanities-councils, where there is also a printable version.
- Federal/State Partnership's brief description of its work and of the work of the state humanities councils is downloadable at www.neh.gov/files/divisions/fedstate/fedstate\_one-pager.pdf.
- Read about council executives who have been profiled in Humanities magazine at www.neh.gov/humanities/infocus.
- Information about all the ways NEH works is located at www.neh.gov/about. This section includes a list, with bios, of the members of the National Council on the Humanities: www.neh.gov/about/national-council-on-the-humanities. It also includes the contact information for all the state humanities councils: www.neh.gov/about/state-humanities-councils.
- A rich view of the wide variety of humanities activities funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities can be surveyed in the "Explore" section of the website: www.neh.gov/explore.
- The NEH website has an important section, "NEH Matters," www.neh.gov/neh-matters. Included here is "NEH in your state," www.neh.gov/news/fact-sheets, which includes work of state humanities councils.