Text: Subject: National Endowment for the Humanities Grant Notification

(<https://www.neh.gov/>)March 25, 2019

Dear Senator Smith:

I am proud to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities is offering grants (see below) to institutions and individuals in Minnesota. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous peer-review process to ensure that the projects represent the highest level of humanities quality and public engagement. The awards are listed below.

In this round of funding, I am particularly proud to announce awards in NEH's Infrastructure and Capacity Building Challenge Grants program, which I launched in 2018 to leverage additional private support for humanities projects. You will see an Infrastructure and Capacity Building Challenge Grant to St. Olaf College among the list of grants below.

I hope that you or a member of your staff will take a moment to call the project directors and congratulate them on their successful grant application. You will be the first to notify project directors of their projects' approval, if you call before NEH staff extends grant offers on March 27.

Many congressional offices work with project directors to announce NEH grants publicly. On March 28, NEH will announce all new grant offers on its website, www.neh.gov. Please hold your public announcements (both traditional and social media) until March 28. NEH is @NEHgov on all social media platforms.

If you have any questions or would like descriptions of the projects, please contact NEH's Office of Congressional Affairs at (202) 606-8207 or congressional@neh.gov.

Sincerely,

Jon Parrish Peede

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE

Humanities

THE CHAIRMAN

May 10, 2018

The Honorable Tina Smith
309 Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Smith:

On Thursday, April 26, the United States Senate voted by unanimous consent to confirm me as the 11th Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities. I appreciate the bipartisan support of the Senate Health, Education, Labor and Pensions Committee that made my speedy confirmation possible.

As Chairman of the National Endowment for the Humanities, I will work with my colleagues to ensure that all Americans have access to our country's cultural resources. I am proud that NEH supports great institutions, such as Macalester College, the Minnesota Historical Society, and Public Radio International. Under my leadership, the agency will continue to fund important humanities projects in Minnesota and across the nation.

Thank you again for your support of my nomination. I look forward to working with you in the future.

Sincerely,

Jon Parrish Peede
Chairman
