Text: Subject: National Endowment for the Humanities Grant Notification
March 27, 2017

Dear Representative Walters:

I am proud to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities is offering grants to institutions and individuals in your 45th district. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous peer-review and selection process to ensure that the projects represent the highest level of humanities research and public engagement. Please find the offered grants listed below.

We hope that you or your staff will take the opportunity to call the project directors to congratulate them on their successful grant application. Please find contact information listed below. NEH program staff recently notified the project directors of their awards.

Many congressional offices work with the project directors to announce offered grants publicly. On March 29, NEH will announce the grants on its website, www.neh.gov (<https://www.neh.gov>). Please hold your public announcements (both traditional and social media) until March 29.

Please contact NEH's Director of Congressional Affairs, Tim Aiken at (202) 606-8273 or taiken@neh.gov (<mailto:taiken@neh.gov>) if you have any questions or would like more information.

Sincerely,

William D. Adams

Dear Representative Walters:

I am proud to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities is offering grants to institutions and individuals in your 45th district. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous peer-review and selection process to ensure that the projects represent the highest level of humanities research and public engagement. Please find the offered grants listed below.

NEH notifies congressional offices of newly offered grants several days before NEH notifies the project directors, so that Members of Congress or their staff have the opportunity to personally call the project directors to inform and congratulate them on their successful applications. If you call the project directors between now and July 27, you will be the first to notify them of their projects' approval. Please find their contact information below.

Many congressional offices work with the project directors to publicly announce offered grants. Please find additional resources from NEH for a public announcement here (<http://50.neh.gov/about/chairman/congressional-affairs/grant-announcement-toolkit>) (the access code is "humanities"). On July 27, NEH staff will contact all successful applicants directly. On August 9, NEH will announce the grants on its website, www.neh.gov (<http://www.neh.gov/>). Please hold your public announcements (both traditional and social media) until August 9.

If you have any questions or would like further information, please contact NEH's Director of Congressional Affairs, Tim Aiken at (202) 606-8273 or taiken@neh.gov (<mailto:taiken@neh.gov>).

Sincerely,

William D. Adams

Dear Representative Walters:

I am proud to announce new grant awards to your 45th district from the National Endowment for the Humanities. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous review and selection process to ensure that the project represents the highest level of humanities research and public engagement. Please find the new grant awards listed below.

NEH notifies Congressional offices of grant awards several days before NEH staff notify the awardees, so that Members of Congress or their staff have the opportunity to personally call the project directors to inform and congratulate them on their NEH grant awards. If you call the grantees between now and March 19, you will be the first to notify them of their award. Please find their contact information below.

Many Congressional offices work with the grant awardees to create press releases either jointly or separately. You may also work with NEH's Communications Director, Theola DeBose (tdebose@neh.gov (<mailto:tdebose@neh.gov>) or 202-606-8255) on a press release. On March 19, our staff will contact all successful applicants directly. On March 23, we will publicly announce the grants on our website, www.neh.gov (<http://www.neh.gov>).

If you have any questions or would like further information on any of these grants, please contact NEH's Director of Congressional Affairs, Tim Aiken at (202) 606-8273, or taiken@neh.gov (<mailto:taiken@neh.gov>).
