	(https://www.neh.gov/)March 26, 2018	8
	Dear Representative Sinema:
	I am proud to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities is offering grants (listed below) to institutions and individuals in your 9th district. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous peer-review process to ensure that the projects represent the highest level of humanities quality and public engagement. The offered grants are listed below.
	I hope that you or your staff will call the project directors to congratulate them on their successful grant application. You will be the first to notify project directors of their projects' approval, if you call before NEH staff extends grant offers on March 28.
	Many congressional offices work with project directors to announce NEH grants publicly. On April 9, NEH will announce all new grant offers on its website, www.neh.gov (https://www.neh.gov/). Please hold your public announcements (both traditional and social media) until April 9. NEH's social media handles are @NEHgov on all platforms.
	If you have any questions or would like more information, please contact Director of Congressional Affairs Tim Robison at (202) 606- 8273 or trobison@neh.gov.

	Dear Representative Sine	ema:

I am pleased to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) has awarded grants to organizations in your 9th district as part of Latino Americans: 500 Years of History. With support from NEH and the American Library Association (ALA), more than 200 sites will receive funding to host public programs that support the American public's exploration of the rich and varied history and experiences of Latinos Americans. The cornerstone of the project is the six-part, NEH-supported documentary film, Latino Americans, created for PBS in 2013 by the WETA public television station.

The organizations that will receive Latino Americans: 500 Years of History in your 9th district are:

City of Chandler Public Library $3,000 Mary Sagar, (b) (6) mary, saga

Mary Sagar, (b) (6) , mary.sagar@chandleraz.gov (mailto:mary.sagar@chandleraz.gov)

NEH notifies Congressional offices of grant awards before notifying the awardees, so that Members of Congress or their staff have the opportunity to contact the project directors to inform and congratulate them on their grant awards. If you call the grantees by noon tomorrow, you will be the first to notify them of their award.

Many Congressional offices work with the grant awardees to create press releases either jointly or separately. Please let us know if you would like additional information from NEH for your press release. On June 11 (tomorrow), ALA staff will contact all successful applicants directly and NEH will publicly announce the grants on NEH's website, www.neh.gov (http://www.neh.gov).

If you have any questions or would like further information on any of these grants, please contact NEH's Director of Congressional Affairs, Tim Aiken at (202) 606-8273, or taiken@neh.gov (mailto:taiken@neh.gov).

	Dear Representative Sinema:

I am pleased to announce that the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) has awarded a grant to a library in your 9th district for the Bridging Cultures Bookshelf: Muslim Journeys, a project of NEH's Bridging Cultures special initiative. The Bookshelf is a collection of books, films, and other resources that will introduce the American public to the complex history and culture of Muslim societies in the United States and around the world. NEH and the American Library Association compiled the Bookshelf based on the advice of scholars, librarians, and other public programming experts. Support for the development and distribution of the Muslim Journeys Bookshelf was provided by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York, with additional support for the arts and media components from the Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art.

To learn more about the Muslim Journeys Bookshelf, please visit the project's description (http://www.neh.gov/divisions/bridgingcultures/featured-project/neh-announces-bridging-cultures-programs-libraries) or the list of books (http://www.neh.gov/files/divisions/bridging-cultures/muslim_journeys_booklet.pdf) on our website.

The library that will receive the Muslim Journeys Bookshelf in your 9th district is:

Tempe Public L brary Rolf Brown, (480) 350-5563

We notify you of the award prior to notifying the grant recipient because in the past, some members of Congress have personally informed and congratulated project directors. NEH grants are highly competitive and involve a rigorous review and selection process to ensure that the project represents the highest level of humanities research and public engagement. We hope that you will take the time today or tomorrow to contact the grant recipients listed above. Tomorrow, our staff will contact all successful applicants and publish the list of grantees on our website, www.neh.gov. (http://www.neh.gov/)

If you have any questions or would like further information on this program, please contact NEH's Director of Congressional Affairs, Courtney Chapin at (202) 606-8298, or cchapin@neh.gov (mailto:cchapin@neh.gov).

Sincerely,

James A. Leach Chairman
