I. Program Description

The National Endowment for the Humanities' Summer Stipends program aims to stimulate new research in the humanities and its publication. The program works to accomplish this goal by:

- Providing small awards to individuals pursuing advanced research that is of value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both.
- Supporting projects at any stage of development, but most especially early-stage research and late-stage writing in which small awards are most effective
- Furthering the NEH's commitment to diversity and inclusion in the humanities by encouraging applications from independent scholars and faculty at Hispanic Serving Institutions, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, tribal colleges and universities, and community colleges

Summer Stipends support continuous full-time work on a humanities project for a period of two consecutive months. NEH funds may support recipients' compensation, travel, and other costs related to the proposed scholarly research.

Summer Stipends are awarded to individual scholars. Organizations are not eligible to apply, even if an institution of higher education serves as a nominator.

Applicants may seek funding for projects based on completed dissertations. You must state in your narrative that the application is to revise a dissertation, and you must explain how the new project moves beyond the original dissertation.

Summer Stipends may not be used for:

- promotion of a particular political, religious, or ideological point of view
- advocacy of a particular program of social or political action
- support of specific public policies or legislation
- projects that fall outside of the humanities (including the creation or performance of art; creative writing, autobiographies, memoirs, and creative nonfiction; and empirically based social science research or policy studies)
- research by students enrolled in a degree program
- support for graduate student assistants
- the preparation or revision of textbooks
- curriculum development
- the development of teaching methods or theories
- educational or technical impact assessments
- inventories of collections
- the writing of guide books, how-to books, and self-help books

NEH areas of interest

Special encouragement in recognition of and preparation for the 250th anniversary of American independence

Americans will celebrate the 250th anniversary of our nation in 2026. The anniversary of American independence provides an important opportunity to look back at the nation's founding and the past two and a half centuries of American history. What began as a conflict between the thirteen colonies and Great Britain culminated in the creation of the world's oldest constitutional democracy. As we approach the 250th anniversary, NEH is offering a special encouragement to applicants in the Summer Stipends program to consider the impact—both immediate and long term—of the momentous events of 1776.

We especially invite applications that explore the role of the Declaration of Independence and other foundational documents in the making of U.S. history. In addition, we would welcome applications that explore the experiences of states and communities beyond the original colonies in joining the nation, since they have their own stories of becoming part of the United States. We also invite applications examining the stories and contributions of underserved communities in our nation's history.

Advancing civic education

NEH encourages projects that promote a deeper understanding of American history and culture, as well as projects that advance civic education and knowledge of America's core principles of government.

Standing Together

NEH invites projects related to its Standing Together initiative, which encourages projects related to war and military service.

Protecting Our Cultural Heritage

In response to the destruction of cultural heritage materials worldwide, NEH encourages applications for projects that study, document, or create digital representations of lost or imperiled cultural heritage materials. Proposed projects should be based on scholarly work and follow standards and best practices. Projects must demonstrate the capacity to be sustained and must be widely accessible to the public. Learn more about Protecting our Cultural Heritage.

The Summer Stipends program will give equal consideration to all applications in accordance with the program's review criteria, whether or not they respond to the Standing Together initiative, focus on lost or imperiled cultural heritage materials, or recognize the 250th anniversary of American independence.

Providing access to NEH-funded products

As a taxpayer-supported federal agency, NEH endeavors to make the products of its awards available to the broadest possible audience. Our goal is for scholars, educators, students, and the American public to have ready and easy access to the wide range of NEH products. For the Summer Stipends program, such products may include digital resources, websites, and the like. For projects that lead to the development of websites, all other considerations being equal, NEH gives preference to those that provide free access to the public. You can find additional guidance on access and dissemination matters below. See the "Final product and dissemination" heading in the instructions for the narrative in Section II of this Notice of Funding Opportunity.

Title to materials produced and intangible property acquired under an award vests with the recipient. NEH recipients may copyright any work that is subject to copyright and was developed, or for which ownership was purchased, under an award. In accordance with 2 CFR §200.315\(b\), NEH reserves a royalty-free, nonexclusive, and irrevocable right to reproduce, publish, or otherwise use the work for federal purposes, and to authorize others to do so. NEH has typically exercised this right in consultation with Fellowship award recipients to publish an excerpt from resulting grant product(s) in Humanities magazine or on the NEH website.

Award information

Summer Stipends provide $6,000 for two consecutive months of research and writing. Recipients must work full-time on their projects for these two months and may hold other non-NEH sources of support (for example, sabbaticals and supplementary funding) or grants for the same project during the Summer Stipend period of performance. Summer Stipends normally support work carried out during the summer months, but arrangements can be made for other times of the year. If you have questions, contact the Summer Stipends staff at stipends@neh.gov.

An individual may not hold more than one NEH individual award (for example, a Fellowship, a Public Scholar award, or a Summer Stipend) at the same time. Nor may an individual work on a project supported by an NEH institutional award as either a project director or participant while holding an NEH individual award. An individual may not accept a teaching assignment or undertake any activities diverting the individual from the Summer Stipend project during the period of performance of the award.

Recipients may begin their awards as early as May 1, 2020.

Successful applicants will be required to complete the Summer Stipends Acceptance Form, from which a payment schedule will be determined.

Cost sharing and indirect costs

NEH Summer Stipends are awarded to individuals, not to institutions. They do not require cost sharing and do not include indirect costs.

Eligibility

Within the parameters listed below (see the next several headings), individual researchers, teachers, and scholars, whether they have an institutional affiliation or not, are eligible to apply. Applicants holding tenured or tenure-track positions at institutions of higher education must, however, be nominated by their institutions. (See the “Faculty nomination section” below.)

Organizations are not eligible to apply for Summer Stipends.

Formal education

All applicants must have completed their formal education by the application deadline. While applicants need not have advanced degrees, individuals currently enrolled in a degree-granting program are ineligible to apply. Applicants who have satisfied all the requirements for a degree and are awaiting its conferral may apply, but such applicants must include as an attachment to the application a letter from the dean of the conferring school, attesting to the applicant’s status as of September 25, 2019.

Citizenship

United States citizens, whether they reside inside or outside the United States, are eligible to apply. Foreign nationals who have been living in the United States or its jurisdictions for at least the three years immediately preceding the application deadline are also eligible.

Faculty nomination

Faculty members with tenured or tenure-track positions who teach full-time at institutions of higher education must be nominated by their institutions to apply for a Summer Stipend. Each institution of higher education in the United States and its jurisdictions may nominate two faculty members. Any faculty member is eligible for nomination.

NEH is not responsible for the nomination procedures established by any institution of higher education. Each institution must designate a single nominating official, usually an academic vice president or dean. NEH expects nominating officials to announce the selection procedures to all prospective applicants and to conduct fair and open competitions to select their institutions' nominees.

Prospective applicants should become familiar with their institutions' nomination procedures before the September 25 application deadline. Once nominated by their institutions, faculty members must submit their applications via Grants.gov. Applicants must include the name and e-mail address of the nominating official for their institutions. If you are nominated and subsequently apply, your nominating official will receive an e-mail message seven to ten days after the application deadline, asking for confirmation of your status as one of your institution's nominees. Confirmation must be submitted online no later than October 17, 2019.

Exceptions to the faculty nomination requirement

The following individuals may apply without a nomination:

- independent scholars not affiliated with an institution of higher education
- non-tenure-track faculty at institutions of higher education
- staff members at institutions of higher education who are not faculty members and will not be teaching during the academic year preceding the award
- community college faculty
- emeritus faculty

Collaborative projects

The NEH Summer Stipends program is designed to support individual researchers. Awards may not be divided. If you are seeking funding for more than one participant in a collaborative project, each person seeking funding must submit a separate application specifying the individual contribution. Panelists will be asked to evaluate each application on its own merits. Each application should clearly explain how the work will be divided and the extent to which each collaborator's contribution depends on that of the other(s). Applicants who are seeking funding only for themselves but who are working as part of a collaborative team are also eligible. In this case, too, the application should clearly explain how the work will be divided and the extent to which each collaborator's contribution depends on that of the other(s). Applicants proposing to work together may wish to apply instead or in addition for an NEH Collaborative Research award.

Prior Summer Stipend recipients

Individuals who have previously received Summer Stipends may apply to support a new stage of their projects. These applications do not receive special consideration and will be judged by the same criteria as others in the competition. However, NEH will ask reviewers to consider the accomplishments from the prior Summer Stipends award and determine if the project warrants additional support.

Limitations on the number of applications and open awards

Applicants may submit only one application to the Summer Scholar program per year.

Applicants are limited to having only one active NEH award to individuals at a time.

Applicants may not participate in a project supported by an NEH institutional award (such as a Summer Seminar or Institute) while holding an NEH individual award that requires continuous, full-time work.

Summer Stipend applicants may compete concurrently in the following NEH programs (though they may hold an award from only one of these programs at a time):

- Public Scholar Program
- Awards for Faculty at Hispanic-Serving Institutions, Historically Black Colleges and Universities, and Tribal Colleges and Universities
- Fellowships or NEH-Mellon Fellowships for Digital Publication
- NEH and National Science Foundation - Fellowship Program for Documenting Endangered Languages \(DEL\)
- Japan-United States Friendship Commission (JUSFC) - Fellowships for Advanced Social Science Research on Japan

If an applicant accepts a Fellowship and applies for a Summer Stipend in the same fiscal year, the Summer Stipends application will be automatically withdrawn after the Fellowship is accepted.

Applications must be complete, must observe the specified page limits, and must be validated by Grants.gov under the correct funding opportunity number to be considered under this notice. NEH will not review late, incomplete, or ineligible applications.

II. Preparing and Organizing Your Application

Resources for preparing a strong application

To prepare a strong application, applicants are encouraged to take the following steps:

- read this Notice of Funding Opportunity carefully, noting what information needs to be provided in the application
- consult the program's review criteria, which are listed immediately below
- review the sample narratives, which are available on the program resource page
- read the Frequently Asked Questions, which are available on the program resource page
- contact the program staff (at 202-606-8200 or stipends@neh.gov) to discuss your project and raise any questions you may have about the application

Because of the large number of applications, the Summer Stipends staff is not able to read and comment on drafts. However, potential applicants may discuss with the staff specific concerns or questions that arise during the preparation of their applications. Contact the NEH Division of Research Programs at 202-606-8200 or stipends@neh.gov. Applicants who are deaf or hard of hearing can contact NEH via Federal Relay (TTY users) at 800-877-8399.

Once an application has been submitted, the staff will not comment on it except with respect to issues of completeness and eligibility. All applications must be created in Grants.gov Workspace and submitted via Grants.gov.

Review criteria

Reviewers are asked to apply the following criteria in assessing applications:

- the intellectual significance of the proposed project, including its value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both;
- the quality or promise of quality of the applicant as an interpreter of the humanities;
- the quality of the conception, definition, organization, and description of the project and the applicant's clarity of expression;
- the feasibility of the proposed plan of work, including, when appropriate, the soundness of the dissemination and access plans; and
- the likelihood that the applicant will complete the project.

Application components

Your application will consist of three forms that are available with the Grants.gov application package on the program resource page. You will then upload the remaining application components in to the attachment form.

Application for Federal Assistance SF 424 - Individual

This Grants.gov form is used to capture basic information about the applicant and the proposed project.

1. Name of Federal Agency

This field will be filled in automatically.

2. Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance Number

This field will be filled in automatically.

3. Date Received

Please leave this field blank.

4. Funding Opportunity Number and Title

Both fields will be filled in automatically.

5a-d. Applicant Information

Provide your name, telephone number, e-mail address, and mailing address. Note: You must include an e-mail address in the "Email" field, even though it is not highlighted as a required field. NEH will use this e-mail address to notify you of the outcome of your application.

Provide your mailing address. Note: Your ZIP code must include the four-digit extension, preceded by a hyphen. If you do not know your four-digit extension, use “-0000” (four zeros). Indicate your citizenship status with an “X.”

Enter the number (just the number, not the state) of your Congressional district. To find the number of your Congressional district, type your ZIP code into the “Find Your Representative” tool on the U.S. House of Representatives website. If you do not have a Congressional district (that is, you are in a state or U.S. territory that does not have districts or you reside in a foreign country), enter a “0” (zero). If you live in one district but your institution is in another, provide the number for the district in which you live.

6. Project Information

a. “Project Title.” Enter this, even though the field is not highlighted. The title should be brief (not more than 125 characters), descriptive, and informative to a nonspecialist audience. Note that NEH reserves the right to change the titles of projects that receive awards. You can find guidance for writing a good title in the Frequently Asked Questions, which are available on the program resource page.

b. “Project Description.” Describe your project for a nonspecialist audience, stating the importance of the proposed work to larger issues in the humanities. This description will appear on your application cover sheet and will serve as a project abstract during the review process. Do not exceed one thousand characters, including spaces. If you exceed one thousand characters, including spaces, the Grants.gov validation software may reject your application or cut off your project description at the thousand-character limit.

c. “Proposed Project.” Enter the starting and ending dates for your two-month project. You may change these dates if you receive an award.

7. Signature

By clicking on the “I Agree” box, the applicant certifies the following:

You are not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from participation in covered transactions by any federal department or agency, and has not—within the three years preceding the submission of this application—been convicted of or had a civil judgment rendered against him or her for commission of fraud or a criminal offense in connection with a public (federal, state, or local) transaction or a contract under a public transaction; for violation of federal or state antitrust statutes; for commission of embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, making false statements, or receiving stolen property; had any public transactions terminated for cause or default; and is not presently indicted for or otherwise criminally or civilly charged by a governmental entity with any of the preceding offenses. (See 2 CFR parts 180 and 3369.)

You are not delinquent in the repayment of any federal debt or is providing explanatory information about any delinquency. Examples of relevant debt include student loans, delinquent payroll or other taxes, audit disallowances, and benefit overpayments. (See OMB Circular A-129.)

You will comply with the NEH Summer Stipends Terms and Conditions available online at <https://www.neh.gov/grants/manage/neh-fellowships-terms-and-conditions>.

Click on the “Save” button at the top of the form to save your work and return to the main menu.

NEH Supplemental Information for Individuals Form

This NEH form to provide additional professional information about you, your institution (if affiliated), and about your reference-letter writers.

Field of Project

Using the drop-down menu, indicate the field(s) of your project. You may select one, two, or three fields. If you select more than one, list the primary field first. Program staff will use this information as a means of assigning your application to an appropriate review panel.

Project Director Field of Study

Using the drop-down menu, choose the field of study that best describes your area of expertise.

Address Information

Please indicate whether the address that you have given on the Application for Federal Assistance SF 424 - Individual form is your home or work address.

Institutional Affiliation

If you are not affiliated with an institution of higher education, please click “No” and continue to the Status section. If you are affiliated with an institution of higher education, please complete the information for that institution. Applicants are strongly encouraged to include their institution’s D-U-N-S® number, omitting hyphens. This number is generally provided by an institution’s sponsored research office and greatly improves efficiency when your application is being processed.

Status

Indicate if you are a junior scholar or a senior scholar. Junior scholars are defined as those who are seven years or fewer beyond their terminal degree; senior scholars are defined as those who are more than seven years beyond their terminal degree.

Reference Letters

Provide the names, e-mail addresses, and affiliations for your two recommenders. Enter only one e-mail address for each recommender. If you provide two e-mail addresses for a recommender, the NEH grants management system will be unable to contact him or her. (Applicants are responsible for providing accurate e-mail addresses. The NEH grants management system will use the addresses exactly as they have been entered on this form.)

To ensure full consideration, letters must be submitted online not later than October 17, 2019.

Late letters will be added to your file when they arrive, but it is possible that evaluators will not take them into account. If you find that you must change one or both of your referees after the application deadline, you may do so by contacting program staff.

Approximately seven to ten days after the deadline, NEH will e-mail requests to your letter writers, asking them to submit their letters online. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that their recommenders have received these requests and that the letters are properly submitted. Although all submitted letters will be added to an applicant's file, it is possible that evaluators will not consider letters submitted after the October 17, 2019, deadline. (For additional information, see the "Checking the status of your letters of reference" section below.) Applicants are also responsible for providing referees with relevant materials (such as a draft of the application).

If you find that you must change one or both of your referees after the application deadline, you may do so by contacting program staff at stipends@neh.gov.

Current members of NEH'S National Council on the Humanities may not serve as referees.

Missing reference letters will not disqualify an application from review.

Nominating Official

If applicable, provide the name, e-mail address, and affiliation for your nominating official. After the deadline, NEH will contact this person, requesting confirmation of your nomination status. Confirmation must be submitted online not later than October 17, 2019. In response to this submission, both the nominating official and the applicant will receive a confirmation via e-mail. NEH will declare ineligible all applicants who do not fit one of the exempt categories and do not have their nomination status confirmed.

Attachments Form

This Grants.gov form is used too to attach the components of your application: the narrative, the bibliography, the résumé, and (if necessary) an appendix.

The components of your application must be attached to the Attachments Form as PDFs. NEH cannot accept attachments in other file formats. Visit Grants.gov's Adobe Software Compatibility page to verify the compatibility of your current software or to download the appropriate version. Even if you choose to complete the online webforms in Workspace, you will need to convert the files that you will attach to the Attachments Form into PDFs. If you have a problem installing Adobe Reader, it may be because you do not have permission to install a new program on your computer. Many organizations have rules about installing new programs. If you encounter a problem, contact your system administrator.

Attachments must be in the specified order and must use the specified names. Do not use accent marks or other special characters in your file names. Use only the following characters when naming your attachments: A-Z, a-z, 0-9, underscore (_), hyphen (-), space (), period (.), parenthesis (), curly braces { }, square brackets [], ampersand &, tilde ~, exclamation point !, Comma ,, Semicolon ;, Apostrophe ', at sign @, number sign #, dollar sign $, percent sign %, plus sign +, and equal sign =. File names must be limited to 50 or fewer characters. If you include any other character in a filename, Grants.gov will reject your application.

When you open the Grants.gov Attachments Form, you will find fifteen attachment buttons, labeled "Attachment 1" through "Attachment 15." By clicking on a button, you will be able to choose the file from your computer that you wish to attach. You must name and attach your files in the proper order, as outlined in the following table.

Note: To ensure that NEH's system does not reject your application after it has been retrieved from Grants.gov, check that your attachments meet the following requirements:

- all attachments must be saved as PDFs
- attachments must be in the specified order and must use the specified names
- attachments must not exceed the specified page limitations
- no attachments other than those specified above may be included

Your application must include the components listed below, which you will attach to the Attachments Form. No budget is required. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that all application components have been properly submitted. Applications exceeding the page limits for the various components or violating the format instructions will not be reviewed.

Attachment Number	Component	Page Limit	Naming Convention
1	Narrative	3 pages	narrative.pdf
2	Bibliography	1 page	bibliography.pdf
3	Résumé	2 pages	resume.pdf
4	Appendix	1 page per item	appendix.pdf

Attachment 1: Narrative

Applicants should provide an intellectual justification for their projects, conveying the ideas, objectives, methods, and work plan. A simple statement of need or intent is insufficient. The narrative should not assume specialized knowledge and should be free of technical terms and jargon.

Applicants should format pages with one-inch margins and with a font size no smaller than eleven point. Single-spacing is permissible (and is the norm among successful applications). In the course of writing a narrative, applicants should address the following topics:

Research and contribution

Describe the intellectual significance of the proposed project, including its value to humanities scholars, general audiences, or both. State the project's thesis or claim and provide an overview, explaining the basic ideas, problems, or questions examined by the study. Explain how the project will complement, challenge, or expand relevant studies in the field.

Methodology and work plan

Describe your method(s) and clarify the part or stage of the project that will be supported by the Summer Stipend. Provide a work plan, describing what you will accomplish during the period of performance. Your work plan must be based on a full-time commitment to the project for two consecutive months; part-time work is not allowed. If you do not anticipate finishing the entire project during the period of performance, discuss your plan for doing so.

For book projects, explain how the final project will be organized. If possible, provide a brief chapter outline. For digital projects, describe the technologies that will be used and developed, and explain how the scholarship will be presented to benefit audiences in the humanities. For edition or translation projects, describe the annotations or other scholarly apparatus that you plan to include. If you are proposing to translate into English a work for which other English translations already exist, provide a rationale for the new translation.

Note that work plans should not be wholly dependent upon factors beyond an applicant's control. For example, an applicant should not request an award solely to respond to readers' reports on a book manuscript, if the applicant has not yet received those reports.

If you are requesting funding for the development, acquisition, preservation, or enhancement of geospatial data, products, or services, you must conduct a due diligence search at the Data.gov list of datasets to discover whether the needed geospatial-related data, products, or services already exist. If not, you must produce the proposed geospatial data, products, or services in compliance with applicable proposed guidance posted at <http://www.fgdc.gov>.

Competencies, skills, and access

Explain your competence in the area of your project. If the area of inquiry is new to you, explain your reasons for working in it and your qualifications to do so. Specify your level of competence in any language or digital technology needed for the study. Describe where the study will be conducted and what research materials will be used. If relevant, specify the arrangements for access to archives, collections, or institutions that contain the necessary resources.

Final product and dissemination

Describe the intended audience and the intended results of the project. If relevant, explain how the results will be disseminated and why these means are appropriate to the subject matter and audience. If the project has a website, please provide the URL.

If the final product will appear in a language other than English, explain how access and dissemination will be affected.

NEH expects recipients to provide broad access to all award products, insofar as the conditions of the materials and intellectual property rights allow. For projects that lead to the development of websites, all other considerations being equal, NEH gives preference to those that provide free access to the public.

NEH also expects that any materials produced in digital form as a result of its awards will be maintained so as to ensure their long-term availability. To that end, describe how the project's digital results, if any, will be maintained and supported beyond the period of performance.

Attachment 2: Bibliography

The bibliography should consist of primary and secondary sources that relate directly to the project. Include works that pertain to both the project's substance and its theoretical or methodological approaches. Reviewers will use the bibliography to assess your knowledge of the subject area. The bibliography should not exceed single spaced page; any standard format is acceptable.

Attachment 3: Résumé

Your résumé will help evaluators assess your qualifications to pursue the project. It must not exceed two single-spaced pages. It should provide the following:

- Current and past positions

- Education: List degrees, dates awarded, and titles of theses or dissertations.
- Awards and honors: Include dates. If you have received prior support from NEH, indicate the name of the NEH program or award, the period of performance, and the publications that resulted from the award(s).
- Publications: Include full citations for publications and presentations.
- Other relevant professional activities and accomplishments

Attachment 4: Appendix

Depending on the specific nature of the proposed project, applicants may be required to provide additional supporting documentation, as described below.

Editions or Translations

Provide a sample of the original text (one page) and the edited or translated version (one page).

Database Projects

Provide a sample entry (one page).

Visual Materials

Provide a sample (one page). This file should be converted to a PDF, and not submitted as a.jpg or other common graphic format.

Proposals from Applicants Awaiting the Conferral of a Degree

Provide a signed letter from the dean of the conferring school, attesting that you have satisfied all of the requirements for the degree as of September 25, 2019. This letter should be converted to a PDF.

Explanation of any delinquent debt (if applicable)

If you are delinquent in the repayment of any federal debt, provide explanatory information on a separate page or pages. Also provide evidence that you have entered into a repayment agreement with the Internal Revenue Service, and that you are current on all payments due. Examples of relevant debt include student loans, delinquent payroll or other taxes, audit disallowances, and benefit overpayments. (See OMB Circular A-129.)

Applications including any other appendices (such as a writing sample or a table of contents for a proposed book) will not be reviewed.

III. Submitting Your Application

All applications to this program must be submitted via Grants.gov. Applicants to the Summer Stipends program must register with Grants.gov independently of their institution's apparatus for submitting applications to Grants.gov. Applicants may enlist support from their institution's authorized representatives in preparing an application for submission through Grants.gov, but applicants must use their own registration to submit the application, not the institution's username and password.

Individuals do not need to register in the System for Award Management (SAM). Awards will not be processed for individuals with delinquent federal debt or for individuals who have been suspended, debarred, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from eligibility for covered transactions by any federal department or agency. To see if you have delinquent federal debt or other exclusions recorded in SAM, go to the SAM website; click on “Search Records,” and then on “Advanced Search - Exclusion.”

What follows is a step-by-step guide for submitting your NEH Summer Stipends application through Grants.gov.

Step 1: Register with Grants.gov

NEH strongly recommends that you complete or verify your registration at least two weeks before the application deadline, since it takes time to process your registration. Grants.gov recommends you the latest version of any of the following browsers: Microsoft Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, or Apple Safari.

If you are registering with Grants.gov for the first time as an individual applicant, go to <https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/applicants/registration.html>. When registering as an individual, note that Grants.gov provides a default code of INDV00000 in the required D-U-N-S® field at the registration site. Do not change that code when registering. However, when filling out the application’s NEH Supplemental Form for Individuals, you will be prompted to indicate your institutional affiliation (if you have one). At that point, you will be required to include your institution’s D-U-N-S® number in the designated field. NEH requires this information in order to keep track of institutions represented in the applicant pool.

Applicants who have already registered at Grants.gov as individuals need not re-register with Grants.gov to submit their Summer Stipends proposals. However, we encourage you to check your account before the deadline to confirm that it is still active and that your password has not expired.

Applicants who lose their username and password can request a reminder.

Please be certain to use a Grants.gov individual account to submit your application. The Grants.gov system will not allow you to submit a Summer Stipends application through an institutional account.

If you have problems registering with Grants.gov, contact the Grants.gov help desk at 1-800-518-4726 or support@grants.gov.

Step 2: Check Adobe compatibility or download the current version of the Adobe Reader

Using Grants.gov Workspace to prepare your application, you may complete the application forms online without using the Adobe Acrobat Reader software. However, you will need to convert the files that you will attach to the Attachments Form into PDFs (see Step 4 below for more information on this form).

If you are filling out the application forms as PDFs, you will need to download and install the latest version of Adobe Acrobat Reader, which is available at no charge and is compatible with both Windows and Mac operating systems. Using older versions of the Adobe Acrobat Reader, or other readers such as Apple Preview, will prevent your application from being processed properly. Visit Grants.gov’s Adobe Software Compatibility page to verify the compatibility of your current software or to download the appropriate version.

Step 3: Access the application package using Grants.gov Workspace

Using Grants.gov Workspace, you may complete the application forms online. You may also download the forms as PDFs. Information about Workspace is available here. you can access the forms online or download the PDFs at any time. (You do not have to wait for your Grants.gov registration to be complete.) A link to the Grants.gov application package can be found on the program resource page.

Step 4: Prepare the application forms

Complete the three application forms and upload the required attachments to the Attachment as described in the Application components section of this Notice of Funding Opportunity.

Step 5: Submit your application to Grants.gov

When you have completed the Application for Federal Assistance SF-424- Individual Form and the NEH Supplemental Information for Individuals Form and attached the component parts of your application to the Attachments Form, perform validation checks on the application as needed, and fix any errors. After you have done so, you are ready to submit your application to Grants.gov.

To submit your application, your computer must have an active connection to the Internet. To begin the submission process, click the “Submit” button. A page will appear, asking you to sign and submit your application. When you click the “Sign and Submit Application” button, your application will be submitted to Grants.gov. Please note that it may take some time to submit your application, depending on the size of your files and the speed of your Internet connection.

After the submission is complete, a confirmation page will appear. This page, which includes a tracking number, indicates that you have submitted your application to Grants.gov. Please print this page for your records.

If you find that you need to make a change to your application after you have submitted it, you may do so any time before the application deadline. Simply submit the corrected version through Grants.gov. All submissions are time-stamped, and NEH will use only your most recent one.

Deadline for submitting applications

Applications for NEH Summer Stipends must be received and validated by Grants.gov by September 25, 2019 at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time. Grants.gov will date- and time-stamp your application after it is fully uploaded. Applications submitted after that date will not be accepted.

IV. What Happens After the Submission of an Application

Confirming the acceptance of your application

Confirm that you have successfully submitted your application. It is your responsibility as an applicant to confirm that Grants.gov and subsequently NEH have received and validated/accepted your application.

Checking the status of your letters of reference

You will be notified by e-mail when each of your letters of reference has been received. After you have received the Grants.gov Agency Tracking Number Assignment message, you may check the status of your letters of reference by logging in to the secure area of NEH's website. Enter your NEH application number and your Grants.gov tracking number. You will be able to see the names and e-mail addresses of your letter writers and whether their letters of reference have arrived. If necessary, you may send reminders to your letter writers (including the upload link) from this site.

Review and selection process

All eligible applications receive peer review. Knowledgeable persons outside NEH will read each application and advise the agency about its merits. NEH staff comments on matters of fact or on significant issues that otherwise would be missing from these reviews, then makes recommendations to the National Council on the Humanities. The National Council meets at various times during the year to advise the NEH chairman. The chairman takes into account the advice provided by the review process and, by law, makes all funding decisions. Learn more about the NEH review process.

Information for all applicants and for successful applicants

NEH will notify applicants of the results of their applications by e-mail in March 2020. NEH will send the notice to the e-mail address supplied in the application. All applicants may obtain the evaluations of their applications by sending a request to stipends@neh.gov.

Successful applicants may begin work on their projects as early as May 1, 2020.

The requirements for awards are contained in the NEH Summer Stipends Terms and Conditions document, and any specific terms and conditions contained in the award document.

Before submitting an application, applicants should review NEH's Research Misconduct Policy.

Reporting requirements

A final performance report will be due within ninety days after the period of performance end date. This report must be submitted electronically via eGMS Reach, NEH's online grant management system. See the Instructions for Submitting the Final Performance Report for NEH Fellowships \(including NEH/Japan-U.S. Friendship Commission Fellowships\), Awards for Faculty, and Summer Stipends for additional information.
